

Due to the weekly traveling schedule, I am a big supporter of SM Radio. Given I am willing to pay for this terrific service, I find it difficult to believe it should be considered as a threat to conventional radio. If conventional radio provided the same XM would have never come to be. This is America, let free enterprise reign.